A Walton Wedding

The historic grandeur of Walton Hall and Gardens makes this a wedding venue like no other. Steeped in history, with pockets of the past in every corner, nook and cranny, Walton Hall is a Cheshire gem cherished by generations.

Its living history is in the oak-panelled halls, the grand staircase, the antique furniture, and Victorian paintings. With the old fireplace in the lobby and the grand piano in the concert room, the former home of Lord and Lady Daresbury will offer you a wedding experience like no other.

Celebrating your wedding with us means you'll have access to our beautiful grounds with countless opportunities to capture that perfect photograph. And that's not all. Celebrating your vows with us means you have access to five different ceremony locations, including the Bandstand adjacent to the hall and our beautiful Pergola, set within Lady Daresbury's famous Formal Gardens.

Why Choose Walton?

At Walton, it's like the Daresbury's never left with carefully restored and refurbished, original wooden floors, oak-panelled walls, and stunning high gilded ceilings.

Feel like the Lord and Lady themselves as you invite guests to celebrate your wedding, making them feel instantly at home in this warm, inviting, and beautifully unique wedding destination.

At Walton Hall, you have the choice of three rooms to make your vows, and during the summer months, we offer the option to be married outdoors too.

Jim, Topaz and Mally are quite the celebrities around these parts, having featured in several weddings. They're well-behaved lads and photogenic too. We guarantee they'll be an instant hit with your guests - if you'd like these three amigos to visit on your special day, just ask. We'll make all the arrangements.
